

Books in Homes Australia Media Consent Form

Dear Parents & Guardians,

Books in Homes Australia encourages community awareness through the promotion of our activities. As such, photos and videos may be taken at events such as Book Giving Assemblies or other assemblies and may be used by Books in Homes Australia and its sponsors and supporters in publications, media and news releases, internet and electronic media, advertising, marketing and promotion and may be used also by different media sources and outlets for the same purposes.

We seek your permission that, should this occur, you consent to your children participating in the photo and video sessions and, if required, for any photos, images, videos and recordings of the child to be used in print, video, digital and internet media by Books in Homes Australia, our sponsors and supporters, and other media sources and outlets. We ask further that you acknowledge Books in Homes Australia owns all rights to the photos, images, videos and recordings, and you are not entitled to any compensation for the use of such material by Books in Homes Australia and Books in Homes Australia may use those materials for the purposes outlined without any further notification to you.

Name of School
